Synopsis

In the enchanting world of Ballet Bunnies, four adorable bunnies - Lily, Mia, Ollie, and Max - share a common dream: to dance on the grand stage of the Royal Ballet Theatre. When the long-awaited audition notice arrives, they leap with excitement and embark on an extraordinary journey filled with determination and unwavering friendship.

As they diligently practice their pliés, tendus, and grand jetés under the watchful eyes of their wise and encouraging teacher, Miss Tutu, they encounter challenges that test their limits. Lily struggles with self-doubt, Mia faces her fear of heights, Ollie tries to overcome his shyness, and Max worries about his lack of experience. But through it all, they support and encourage each other, reminding themselves that together they can achieve anything.

The day of the audition finally arrives, and the bunnies are a bundle of nerves. As they wait their turn backstage, they draw inspiration from the words of Miss Tutu: "Dance from your heart, and let your passion shine through." With trembling legs and pounding hearts, they step onto the stage and give it their all.
